Special Aspects

The Cheney CBC was a little low this year. Contributing factors were the extreme cold (prolonged single digit) temperatures for the month of December that froze all our open water. The cold on the day of the count combined with 14 inches of snow made birding some areas difficult. Even with the usual waterfowl missing, however, we did get a few birds that were a first for the circle, including Snow Bunting, Prairie Falcon, Ring-billed Gull, Saw-whet Owl, and Western Grebe. Count week of Lesser Goldfinch gave us an added boost.
